7. Special provision on educational method

Article 14 of the Standards for Establishment of Graduate Schools stipulates that graduate schools may, if necessary from an educational standpoint, provide education through appropriate means, which include conducting classes or research guidance in the evening and other certain hours and periods.

8. Long-Term Study Program

The standard term of study is 2 years. The long-term study program is available for those who wish to study and complete a degree through long-term enrollment due to their time limitation. Under this long-term study program, students are able to extend their term of study up to 4 years. The annual tuition under the long-term study program is determined by dividing the total fee paid for the regular program of standard term of study (annual tuition fee x 2 years) by the number of years allowed under the long-term study program (The new tuition fee will be applied when the tuition fee is changed during their enrollment).

- Under the long-term study program, students are allowed to have the 2 years' leave that regular students are also allowed. In this leave, students will be treated as a holdover (a student enrolled in a course for a subsequent time) and tuition fee will be the same as regular students when the term of this program is over.
- For any inquiries about this program, please contact the Entrance Examination Office listed on page 8. The Graduate School will also inform the successful applicants about this program with more details.

9. Other information

 - ⑤ Applicants who have completed (or expect to complete by September 30, 2019) 15 years of school education outside Japan, and be recognized by the Graduate School of Agriculture as having earned the necessary credits with satisfactory grades (Note 1)
 - ⑥ Applicants who have been recognized by the Graduate School of Agriculture as having academic ability equal or superior to that of a university graduate through an individual entrance qualification screening and who will have reached 22 years of age by September 30, 2019 (Note 2).

(Note 1) Applicants who are qualified under ④ or ⑤ above are required to go through preliminary screening. Please contact the Entrance Examination Office of the Graduate School of Agriculture before the application. Please see page 15 for the further information.

(Note 2) Applicants who are qualified under ⑥ above are subject to an individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening). Please contact the Entrance Examination Office of the Graduate School of Agriculture before application. Please see pages 15 for the further information.

3. Selection procedure

Admission will be determined based on the English test, academic achievement test and interview test. We will use the statement of purpose, and the official transcript from the last school attended as part of the reference materials for admission.

English test	We evaluate English ability from the grading certificate of test of TOEFL, TOEIC, or IELTS that you submitted when application procedure.
Academic achievement test	1. Applicants must make a presentation for about 5 minutes. Presentation must be based on research plan after entrance. 2. We ask and answer questions for about 10 minutes after presentation.
Interview test	We will conduct an interview for about 10 minutes. We will use the statement of purpose and the official transcript from the last school attended as part of the reference materials for admission.

Note

Applicants must prepare 10 handouts about research plan after entrance and bring them on the examination day. Handout should be written on only one side of A4-sized paper. Text size in handout is 10.5 point, applicants can use color font as well as figure / table in handout.

4. Date and place of examination

We will inform applicants of schedule of the examination day after application.

Date	Major	Course	Selection procedure	Place
Saturday, August 24, 2019	Major in Agricultural Science	Course in Applied Asian Agriculture	Academic achievement test Interview test	College of Agriculture, Ibaraki University

5. Application procedure

(1) Documents to be submitted

Applicants are required to submit documents (1) to (9) listed on page 13 as well as “振込払込受付証明書 (Certificate of Remittance)” for the examination fee of 30,000 yen, enclosed in an envelope (332 mm x 240 mm) marked “Graduate School Application Enclosed” in red. These documents must be sent by registered mail if the postal service is used.

Payment of the examination fee

<Paying at a financial institution>

- Use the attached Remittance Form (Note 3) and transfer the examination fee from a financial institution, such as a bank, Shinkin Bank, Japan Post Bank/post offices, or agricultural cooperative bank.
- Make sure to receive two types of receipts from the financial institution: one is “振込払込受付証明書 (Certificate of Remittance)” and another is “振替払込請求書兼受領書 (Receipt)” in Japanese. Make sure to check both receipts are stamped by the financial institution.
- Submit “振込払込受付証明書 (Certificate of Remittance)” with the application documents.
- Keep “振替払込請求書兼受領書(Receipt)” until the examination admission card arrives.

<Paying at a convenience store in Japan>

- Please follow the procedures of “how to pay the examination fee at a convenience store” in order to transfer the examination fee from a convenience store.
- Receive “取扱明細書 (Handling Statement)” or “取扱明細書兼領収書 (Receipt)” at the convenience store.
- Cut out “収納証明書 (Payment Certificate)” printed on “取扱明細書 (Handling Statement)” or “取扱明細書兼領収書(Receipt)”, and submit “収納証明書(Payment Certificate)” with the application documents.
- Please aware that the payment of the examination fee at convenience stores need to be submitted by 15:00 on the last day of application period.

<Paying by credit card>

- Access to the website, “e-apply (イーアプライ)” (URL: <http://e-apply.jp/e/ibaraki-gs/>), and pay the examination fee from the site.

(3) Notification of the results of preliminary screening

The applicant will be notified of the results by the Dean of the Graduate School of Agriculture by express mail by Friday, July 12, 2019.

○ Individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening)

1 . Regarding the application requirement (2) of General Selection, the application requirement (3) of Special Selection for Adult Students and the application requirement (4) of Special Selection for International Students, applicants who pass the individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening) will fit the following category.

Applicants who are not university graduates, but graduates of two-year colleges, colleges of technology, specialized training colleges, other vocational schools, Japanese branches of foreign universities, or schools for foreigners, who are recognized by the Graduate School of Agriculture as having academic ability equal or superior to that of a university graduate through an individual entrance qualification screening, and who have reached 22 years of age.

* The phrase “who have reached 22 years of age” for the individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening) refers to those who will have reached the age by September 30, 2019.

Applicants for the individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening) shall contact the following office before applying.

Entrance Examination Office, Graduate School of Agriculture, Ibaraki University
TEL 029 – 888 – 8519 (+ 81 – 29 – 888 – 8519)

2 . The above individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening) is carried out as follows.

(1) Documents to be submitted

Application form for individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening)
(prescribed by the Graduate School of Agriculture)

Reasons for application (prescribed by the Graduate School of Agriculture)

Curriculum vitae (prescribed by the Graduate School of Agriculture)

Certificate of graduation or completion from the last school attended (original)

[If the date of birth isn't written in certificate, submit specifying the date of birth.]

Official sealed transcript from the last school attended (original) (official sealed)

Envelope with your address [(235 mm x 120 mm), with a stamp of 362 yen (the rate for special delivery mail)]

For applicants submitting documents written in foreign language, submit documents which translated into Japanese.

(2) Application procedure

Prepare the documents to above and send them to the office by registered express mail no later than Friday, June 28, 2019.

If you would like to submit them to the office by hand, reception hours are as follows.

[Reception hours] : 9:00 - 11:30 and 13:00 - 16:00

(4) Notification of the results of individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening)

The applicant will be notified of the results by the Dean of the Graduate School of Agriculture by express mail by Friday, July 12, 2019.

- (5) Selection criteria for individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening)
The selection will be carried out based on the overall evaluation of submitted documents, including the academic record of the last school attended, curriculum vitae, and reasons for application.
- (6) If applicants have passed the individual entrance qualification screening (application qualification screening), they can apply for the entrance examination of the Graduate School of Agriculture. Submit a copy of the notification letter issued by the Graduate School of Agriculture with the application documents.

○ Handling of personal information

In accordance with the Law Concerning Access to Personal Information Held by Independent Administrative Institutions (Personal Information Protection Law), Ibaraki University will use personal information provided by applicants through documents, such as application forms, only for purpose of selection, and neither uses for other purposes nor provides them for third parties.

Personal record disclosure

We disclose the personal records related to entrance examinations for Master's programs in the Graduate School of Agriculture limited to the examinees based on the followings.

Application period

From Friday, November 1 to Friday, November 29, 2019
Reception hours: 9:00 – 17:00
(except Saturdays, Sundays, and national holidays)

Applicant

Restricted to the unsuccessful applicants only

Application method

Come to the university with the following documents, and apply using the designated form.

- Examination admission card
- Document to identify the individual (student ID card, driver's license, passport, etc.)
- Envelope with your address [(235 mm x 120 mm), with a stamp of 512 yen (the rate for special delivery mail)]

Mailing address for application

Entrance Examination Office, Graduate School of Agriculture, Ibaraki University
3-21-1 Chuo, Ami, Inashiki, Ibaraki 300-0393, Japan

Disclosure method

The personal record is sent by registered mail at a later date.

Disclosure content

Disclosure is made for unsuccessful applicants by the category of level (three levels).

Others

The score and the rank are not disclosed.

However, in the case in which the unsuccessful applicants are fewer than five people, disclosure is not made.
